

Cornish Art History Holidays

9 – 12 July 2018

Lamorna Birch &
Artists of Lamorna /St.Hilary

Study Holiday looking at the art and life of S.J.Lamorna Birch RA (1869 – 1955) and artists who were influenced by him who lived in Lamorna from 1890 – 1950.

With Catherine Wallace

Including Illustrated lectures at The Queen's Hotel,
The Promenade, Penzance, Cornwall TR18 4HG

www.cornsharthistoryhols.co.uk
tel 01326 618914 mob 07974995085

S.J.Lamorna Birch 'In Our Old World Valley' (detail) © Penlee House Gallery and Museum

ABOUT CORNISH ART HISTORY STUDY HOLIDAYS

Catherine Wallace* has taught courses on the history of Newlyn and Lamorna Artists for Adult Education Colleges in Cornwall and is an Arts Society lecturer. She believes in sharing her in depth knowledge she has acquired over 20 plus years on Cornish art as a curator and writer with like minded art enthusiasts. Her courses focus on art history and the appreciation of art from a practical and visual point of view. Her lectures aim to inform and entertain. No previous knowledge or experience is required to come on her courses just an interest in art and Cornwall!

*To learn more about Catherine visit her website
www.cathwallace.co.uk

Each Course costs = £300
£100 deposit. Balance of £200 required one month before the start of each course.

Please pay:
Catherine Wallace and send to
Pendarves, Tremough Dale, Penryn
Cornwall TR10 8JA
or by BACS - email for bank details
catherinewallace2@icloud.com

Additional costs

- * Return travel to Cornwall
- * Accommodation
- * Museum entrance fee (free to Art Fund members)
- * Dinners and 3 lunches.

Max. Group number 20 people.

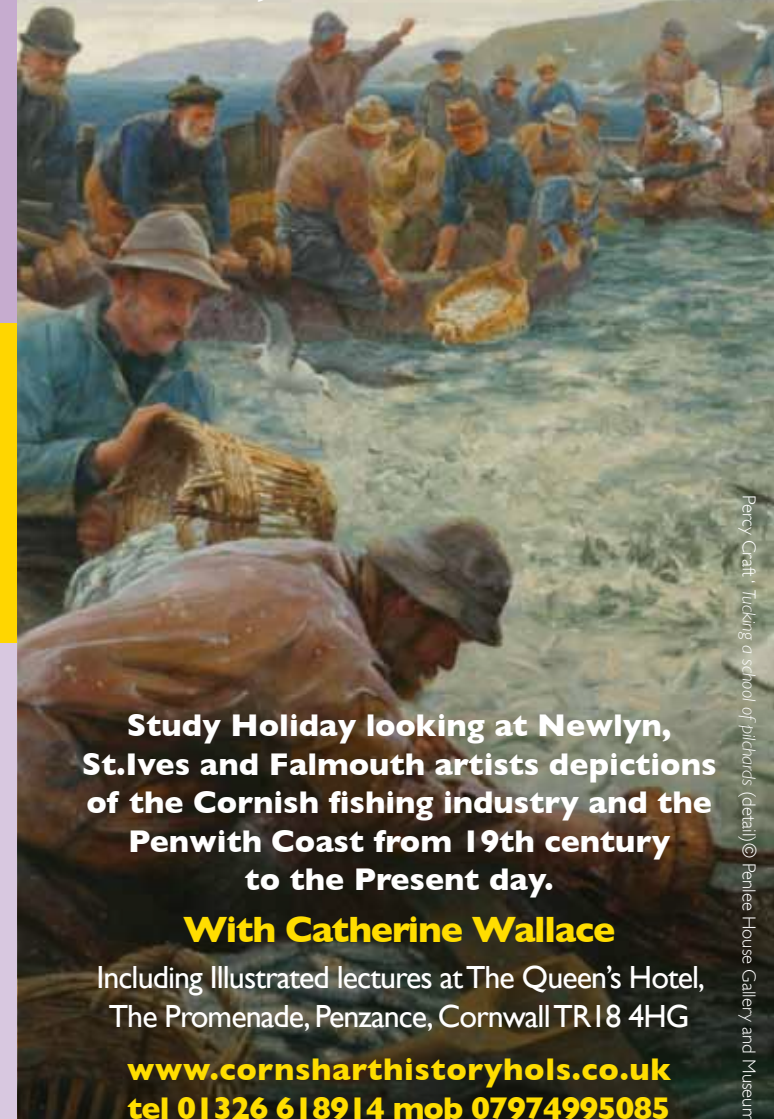

Full itinerary will be sent by post/email on receipt of payment.

www.cornsharthistoryhols.co.uk
Accommodation to be arrange independently.
See website or www.penleehouse.org.uk/about-penlee/
links

Cornish Art History Holidays

26 – 29 March 2018

Art, Fish & the Sea

Study Holiday looking at Newlyn,
St.Ives and Falmouth artists depictions of the Cornish fishing industry and the Penwith Coast from 19th century to the Present day.

With Catherine Wallace

Including Illustrated lectures at The Queen's Hotel,
The Promenade, Penzance, Cornwall TR18 4HG

www.cornsharthistoryhols.co.uk
tel 01326 618914 mob 07974995085

Percy Galt 'Tugging a school of pilchards' (detail) © Penlee House Gallery and Museum

Art, Fish and the Sea: Newlyn and St. Ives Marine Art Study Holiday

Day 1. Monday 26 March 2018

Study Day at the Queens Hotel 10.30 – 3.30pm

3 x lectures look at how artists from Turner to the present day including the Newlyn School painted the Penwith coast from Land's End to Newlyn and how artists from Newlyn, Falmouth and St. Ives depicted the Cornish fishing industry. Artists include Walter Langley, William Wainwright, Stanhope Forbes, Percy Craft, Harold Harvey, Charles N. Hemy, Frank Bramley, William B. Fortescue, T.C. Gotch, Henry M. Rheam, H.S. Tuke, Laura Knight, Harold Knight, A.J. Munnings, etc.

Sandwich lunch with tea and coffee included.

Venue: The Reading Room, The Queens Hotel, The Promenade, Penzance, Cornwall, TR18 4HG

Day 2. Tuesday 27 March

Visit to Penlee House Gallery 10.30 – 3.30pm

Guided tour of 'Bringing Home the Catch: Art and Fishing in Newlyn'

Coffee break and lunch in the café (not included)

Afternoon guided tour of Lamorna paintings from the Permanent collection.

Venue: Penlee House Gallery and Museum, Morrab Road, Penzance.

Day 3. Wednesday 28 March

Walk and Visits to Artists' Studios in Newlyn 10.30 – 3.30pm

A guided walk around Newlyn looking at history of the fishing industry and places where historic paintings were created. Combined with an opportunity to meet living artists in Newlyn. Lunch at the Tolcarne Inn (Not included in price)

Transport included.

Day 4. Thursday 29 March

Visit to Porthmeor Studios, St. Ives 10.30 – 3.30pm

Guided tour of the Porthmeor studios and fishermen's cellars. Followed by a lecture by Catherine Wallace on 19th century St. Ives marine painters. Lunch locally followed by a visit to the St. Ives Arts Club and a walk through St. Ives.

Transport included.

Venue: Borlase Smart Room, Porthmeor Studios, Back Road West, St. Ives.

Breadwinners, watercolour by Walter Langley © Penlee House Gallery and Museum

Visit artist's studios in Newlyn and see where historic pictures were painted.

See the art in St. Hilary church

Visit the magical Lamorna Valley

Visit to Award Winning Penlee House Gallery and Museum (Admission Charge)

S.J. Lamorna Birch (artist, fisherman and teacher)

Lamorna Birch and Artists of Lamorna/ St. Hilary Study Holiday

Day 1. Monday 9 July 2018

Study Day at the Queens Hotel 10.30 – 3.30pm

3 x lectures including Lamorna Birch who was a leader in Landscape painting. We look at his life and work and the colony of artists who came to Lamorna. Artists include S.J. Lamorna Birch, Garstin Cox, John Noble Barlow, Stanley Gardiner, Frank Gascoigne Heath, Robert and Eleanor Hughes, Richard Seal Weatherby, Laura and Harold Knight, Alfred Munnings, Hannah Gluckstein, Denys Law, Marlow Moss and Ithel Colquhoun etc.

Sandwich lunch with tea and coffee included.

Venue: The Reading Room, The Queens Hotel, The Promenade, Penzance, Cornwall, TR18 4HG

Day 2. Tuesday 10 July

Visit to Penlee House Gallery 10.30 – 3.30pm

Guided tour of 'Enchanted by a special place: The Art of S.J. Lamorna Birch'

Coffee break and lunch in the café (not included)

Afternoon guided tour of Newlyn School collection.

Venue: Penlee House Gallery and Museum, Morrab Road, Penzance

Day 3. Wednesday 11 July

Visit to the Lamorna valley and Cove 10.30 – 3.30pm

Walk and tour of the Lamorna valley and Cove including looking at where artists lived and where pictures were painted. Lunch locally (Not included in the price)

Then we visit Trewoofe house – the home of Charles and Ella Naper.

Transport included.

Day 4. Thursday 12 July

Visit to St. Hilary Church, near Goldsithney 10.30 – 3.30pm

Lecture on Annie Walke and the Artists who made paintings for St. Hilary Church by Catherine Wallace in St. Hilary's Meeting Room. Followed by a tour of the Visitor centre, Church and graveyard. Lunch locally.

Transport from Penzance to St. Hilary included.

Venue: The Meeting room, St. Hilary Church, St. Hilary near Goldsithney.